COLLECTION

ETERNA

A timeless aesthetics exalting the contemporary living.

The distinctive materiality of the surfaces merge with delicate graphic styles by moving the chromatic uniformity of the natural colours' shades, while textile inserts animate the collection for a matching result with a great personality.

A project created by the cooperation between Cristiana Masi, Roberto and Odilla Fabbri to interpret a vision in line with the expressive codes of modernity , as well as having a great coherence with an identity, creativity and artsanship always characterizing the Made in Italy collections.

Eterna is all about resisting to the sign of tradition.
